About Us

Leá Bella Creative was founded by Leanne Bell. A hopeless romantic, Leanne spent 20 years coordinating stylish, high profile events in the corporate world before finally succumbing to her love of love. For the last five years, VIP race days, product launches, motivational weekends, and black tie functions have been replaced by gowns, etiquette, theming, styling, designing, and stationery, but some things remain unchanged. Problem solving, relationship building, listening, understanding, intuition, and attention to detail are still paramount.

Nestled on the northern shores of beautiful Bondi Beach, Leanne and the Leá Bella Creative staff understand the importance of "the perfect day". More importantly, they know how to deliver it.

Approach

Lea Bella Creative delivers first class service, eliminates stress, saves you time, and saves you money. Our objective is simple: to create a wedding which is eminently enjoyable and exciting. A wedding which befits your dream. From planning right through to honeymoon, Lea Bella Creative will deliver a beautiful, refined occasion you will remember with joy.

Because Lea Bella Creative is supplier-independent, we're not tied to specific allegiances or interests so we can create the perfect occasion without compromise. We do not accept 'kickbacks' or referral fees from suppliers, so you can be assured of the objectivity and integrity of our referrals. We negotiate the best prices possible and pass on all discounts and benefits to you, the client. In fact, these cost savings quite often negate the cost of our fees altogether.

As a specialist wedding planner, our fees are based on the needs expressed in your brief. For a wedding package, we charge a flat fee. If only a limited number of services are required, we charge per hour.

If you are working with a limited budget, a Wedding Planner is a must. We can help you define a workable budget, prioritise where your money is best spent, and negotiate suitable vendors without compromising on service or quality.

Lea Bella Creative understands that it's your wedding day, so we follow your wishes. To ensure your wedding day flows smoothly, we liaise with all suppliers prior to the day and provide them with detailed instructions and timelines. In fact, our weddings are so well organised that you can choose whether or not you'd like us to be present. You decide whether you'd like the safety net of our presence or whether you'd prefer your guests to revel in the wonders of 'your' creation, ensuring that you, the Bride and Groom, receive the accolades on the day!
